

تذكرنا بأن الحسنات يذهبن السيئات وأن لذة الحياة في الطاعات لا بالمعاصي

A wide-angle photograph capturing a massive gathering of people, predominantly men, inside a grand, high-ceilinged hall. The attendees are densely packed, filling the space from the foreground to the far back. Many of the men are wearing traditional white thobes and ghutras, while others are in casual or semi-formal attire. In the foreground, a row of men stands facing the camera, some with their hands clasped in prayer. To the right, a man dressed in a brown robe stands at a podium, addressing the assembly. The hall's architecture features tall, arched windows and large pillars, with warm lighting illuminating the scene. The floor is covered with dark prayer mats, and several wooden stands holding books or pamphlets are visible in the immediate foreground.

ومن هدية صلى الله عليه وسلم أنه كان يعتفك العنبر، وعن عبد الله بن عمر رضي الله عنهما قال: كان رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يعتفك العنبر الأخير، وعن رمضان، رواه البخاري. وعن غانصة رضي الله عنها قالت: كان رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يجتهد في العنبر الأخير ما لا يجتهد في غيره. رواه مسلم.

